

WOMEN IN DOINGS OF THE WORLD

SOCIETY BEUTY GOES UNDER THE KNIFE

WINS OUR FREEDOM

Mrs. I. T. Burden, Jr.

New York, Jan. 29.—Special trains dashed across the continent to carry the parents of Mrs. I. Townsend Burden, Jr., from Denver to New York when an operation for mostoids endangered her life. Before she was married to the society leader she was known as the "richest girl in Colorado." Her father, Dennis Sheedy, got his money in mines.

THEORY SHATTERED

"Children," said the teacher to his pupils, "you should be able to do anything equally well with either hand. With a little practice you will find it just as easy to do anything with one hand as it is with the other."

"Is it?" inquired the urchin at the foot of the class. "Let's see you put your left hand in the right-hand pocket of your trousers."—Ladies' Home Journal.

Caroline A. Lowe

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 29.—When the police grabbed Miss Catherine Lowe and three other women because they insisted on holding a street meeting for Socialist propaganda, she didn't rush to a lawyer. Instead, she put the cops through a gruelling cross-examination and then made so eloquent a speech in defense of her rights that the judge decided that it wasn't the right season for suppressing free speech.

The heart-beats number 30 per minute in the elephant, 40 in the horse, 50 in the ass and mule, 70 in man, 90 in the dog, 150 to 300 in the rabbit, and about 670 in the mouse. The last number is the average obtained by F. Buchanan from a number of observations on mice with a photographically registering electrometer.
